ABOUT ALVIN

When people in under-resourced communities experience trauma, the local church can be a beacon of hope.

Alvin Sanders learned this from firsthand experience. While serving as an urban leader in the second most violent neighborhood in the country, a tragedy took place. A police shooting with racial overtones rocked the neighborhood.

As a response, Alvin planted an innovative church that continues to care for, serve, and encourage people from all walks of life. Through this experience, he discovered his personal mission: to follow hard after God, to love his family, and to invest in those who invest in the poor.

ABOUT BRIDGING the DIVERSITY GAP

Leading Towards God's Multi-ethnic Kingdom

In a diverse, divided world, pastors and church leaders are faced with the question of how to lead across ethnic lines to bring healing and unity to the body of Christ.

How can the church more accurately reflect the vision of God's kingdom, gathering together every tribe and nation? It all begins with leaders whose minds and hearts have been transformed by the gospel.
